I have heard of how a Kinsman was sent to redeem the helpless;
Truly God, yet truly man - in our likeness Messiah came.
Though He was God's own Son, destined to reign as King,
Like a Lamb, He poured out His soul to death.
Giving Himself as a ransom for all,
So we could have peace with God.

Like a flint, His face was set to Jerusalem for the hour.
There, such pain and so much need, to His Father He prayed with tears:
"If it be possible, let this cup pass from Me;
Yet, I come, O Father, to do Thy will..."
Then He was made to be sin for us, and
The Father was satisfied.
