I have heard of how a Kinsman was sent to redeem the helpless;
 Truly God, yet truly man - in our likeness Messiah came.
 Though He was God's own Son, destined to reign as King,
 Like a Lamb, He poured out His soul to death.
 Giving Himself as a ransom for all,
 So we could have peace with God.

Like a flint, His face was set to Jerusalem for the hour.
 There, such pain and so much need, to His Father He prayed with tears:
 "If it be possible, let this cup pass from Me;
 Yet, I come, O Father, to do Thy will..."
 Then He was made to be sin for us, and
 The Father was satisfied.
